Career Guidance Programme Hosted by Alumni of VMCH&RI

On 12.07.2022 a career guidance programme was hosted by the Alumni Association of Velammal Medical College. The aim was to give the Interns & students of VMCH&RI an idea of the career options available currently. The welcome address was given by Dr. Thirunavukkarasu, Dean VMCH&RI.

Dr. Subramaniam, Rheumatologist had given his insight on his experience abroad and how he tackled it. He introduced the speakers, Dr Sai Yuvavishalini, who is currently on her way to the UK to continue her PLAB journey; Dr. Madhan who has successfully entered the administrative services and is currently under training; Dr. Dhivya, final year postgraduate in Anaesthesia in VMCH&RI and Dr. Shivani, Junior doctor working in the NHS in UK. Each speaker had a different perspective on career pathways. Dr Sai Yuvavishalini had spoken about the PLAB process and the selection criteria, she'd explained on her pursuits during her UG period and how it helped build her resume as a candidate.

Dr Shivani, who is currently a junior doctor in the UK, had explained on the process of PLAB, and the order of exams given to reach the level of a superspecialist. She'd also mentioned about the vast difference in attitude towards patient care, work culture and wages between UK and India. Dr. Madhan had spoken about the alternative career pathways that is being offered, ranging from insurance, foreign aid organizations, journalism and civil services. Lastly, Dr Dhivya had given a talk on research and how she went about paper presentations and how it would aid her in the future. The vote of thanks was presented by Dr. Swarnavalli, CRRI, and the session was concluded.

97 students participated in the program.
