Instructional sessions for students on the Medical, Legal Ethical and Social issues involved in organ transplantations

The instructional session on medical, legal, ethical and social issues involved in organ transplantation is taken by the department of Forensic Medicine & Toxicology for the Undergraduate (UG) students of medical profession. It is taken as a one hour didactic interactive lecture session with flipped class technique as the topic is vast and the time allotted according to the curriculum is comparatively less. It is taken for the phase II (3rd semester) UG students. In this session, the UGs will be enlightened on the latest amendments on the rules of the organ transplantation along with the other core topics like

- a) Medical issues – this subtopic highlights the various medical conditions which end up for organ transplantation.
 - It also emphasizes the advantages, disadvantages & other associated medical workouts involved during & before a transplant procedure.
 - It also explains the various types of organ transplantation.
- b) Legal issues – this subtopic highlights the various legal issues involved in organ transplantation.
 - It highlights on the various legal documents needed, what is the eligibility to be a donor and what are the legal conditions fulfilling the living donor, dead donor and who can be a recipient and what are the relationship limits to be a donor etc.,
 - It also emphasis on the various unethical practices and unethical acts related to organ transplantation.
- c) Ethical issues – This session enlightens the various ethical issues involved in the organ transplantation.
 - The core of this subtopic is to how and when a doctor can pronounce a person as brain dead, so that he will be eligible as a donor.
