

Basic Life Support Workshop

A Basic Life Support programme was organized by the department of Physiology on 21st October 2022 for First MBBS Students 2021-22 batch between 11am-1pm in Lecture hall1. Dr. Durai arasan conducted the pretest for the students. After the initial welcome address by Dr. John Rajpathy, Professor of Physiology, Dr.Merwin ,Professor and Head, Dept. of Emergency medicine gave a lecture on principles and methods of BLS. Following this the students were divided into 6 groups of 25 each. Each group was given hands on training on mannequins by emergency medicine postgraduates Dr.sameer &Dr. Ajeeth. Each student was encouraged to practice on the mannequin. It was a highly interactive session. Post test was conducted by dr.Kausikan.The programme ended with vote of thanks by Dr.Renu meena,

VELAMMAL HOSPITAL
the healing touch

